

NEVADA DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY 2009 ANNUAL LUNCHEON

JOHN KASICH: Political Leader, Business Leader, Media Personality, Author and Popular Speaker

- Newsweek magazine named him one of its “100 people for the 21st Century.”
- George magazine featured him as “One of the Most Fascinating Men in Politics.”
- He served with distinction in the Ohio State Senate and the U.S. House of Representatives for 18 years, assuming leadership roles on the toughest issues of the day.
- As Chairman of the House Budget Committee, he wrote the United States’ first balanced budget in 30 years – the first balanced budget since man walked on the moon.
- He was Chairman of the historic congressional committee that overhauled the welfare system.
- And, he was a leading voice in reforming the military and eliminating wasteful government spending.

Mr. Kasich’s ability to communicate powerfully and effectively has made him a popular and highly requested public speaker to national organizations and corporations throughout the country.

- He appears frequently on television hosting his own show on Saturdays on the Fox News Channel called Heartland with John Kasich.
- He often substitutes as the host for The O’Reilly Factor and can be seen on other Fox News shows.

John Kasich is:

- Managing Director at Lehman Brothers in their Investment Banking Division, and he serves on the corporate boards of companies in the manufacturing, health, and internet technology sectors.
- A guest fellow at Texas A&M and guest lecturer at The Ohio State University’s Fisher College of Business.
- Chairman of the New Century Project – a national grassroots political organization that helps elect leaders who believe in the power of the individual.
- Author of the New York Times best-selling book, Courage is Contagious.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:
John R. Kasich
Fox News Host and Best-Selling Author

